International Journal of Politics, Culture and Society

Volume 9, Number 1 Fall 1995

Editors' Note 3

I
Rethinking the Enlightenment: Reason and Unreason

Toward a Rational Grasp of Irrationality: Some Gaps in Social and Economic Theory 5
Arthur J. Vidich

History and Sociology: Some Unresolved Epistemological Issues 29
Stanford M. Lyman

II
Mirrors on the Past: Visions and Revisions After the Cold War

Forgotten Predecessors: The Russian Conservative Historians of the French Revolution 57
Dmitry Shlapentokh

The French Revolution in the Intellectual and Political Context of the Last Years of the Soviet Regime 87
Dmitry Shlapentokh

The Mirror of the Hemispheric Past: The United States and Latin America 113
José Luis Valdés-Ugalde

Hungarians and Germans: A Literary Hassliebe 123
Ivan Sanders

III
Economic Reconstruction: Poland and the Former Yugoslavia

Mass Privatization in Poland: Processes, Problems and Prospects 133
Christine Rider and Edward K. Zajicek

Nations of the Former Yugoslavia: Consequences of Economic Breakdown 149
Ljubisa S. Adamovich

Letter to the Editors 169
Kathryn Mills

About the Authors 171

International Journal of Politics, Culture and Society

Volume 9, Number 2 Winter 1995

Editors' Note 177

I
Three Variations of the Enlightenment and Its Discontents

History and Irrationality: Postmodernism — East and West 179
Dmitri Shlapentokh

Without Morals or Mores: Deviance in Postmodern Social Theory 197
Stanford M. Lyman

Foreshadowings of Postmodernism: Counter-Cultures of the Apocalypse 237
Franco Ferrarotti

II
Two Studies: State, Religion and Bureaucracy in Ancient China and Modern Greece

Cultural Taxonomy and Bureaucracy in Ancient China:
The Book of Lord Shang 263
Don Handelman

Greek Orthodoxy and the Politics of Nationalism 295
Vassiliki Georgiadou

III
American Historiographies of Race and Work

The Importance of Race in American Labor History 317
Herbert Hill

About the Authors 345

International Journal of Politics, Culture and Society

Volume 9, Number 3 Spring 1996

Editors' Note 351

I
Contending with Postmodernism

A Modernist's Critique of Postmodernism 353
James Trilling

II
The Civic and the Uncivic: Three Studies on Faiths and Societies

Equality, Multiculturalism and the Dilemmas of Civility in Israel 373
Ezra Kopelowitz

A Breakdown of the Civil Order: The Balkan Bloodbath 401
Josip Zupanov, Dusko Sekulic, and Zeljka Sporer

The Sacred and Profane Among Italian American Catholics: The Giglio Feast 423
Salvatore Primeggia and Joseph A. Varacalli

III
The Civil Rights Movement in the American South

The Rise and Fall of a People's Movement 451
Michael W. Hughey

Reclaiming the Civil Rights Movement 459
Robert Washington

IV
Writing as a Form of Dress: Skirting Feminism in French Literary Culture

Exposures: Literature, Woman, and the Pleasure of the Reader 475
Brett Levinson

Theory and I: Multivalence of the Word 495
Rebecca Karoff

Trivial Pursuits 505
Andrew J. McKenna

About the Authors 519

International Journal of Politics, Culture and Society

Volume 9, Number 4 Summer 1996

Editors' Note 525

I

Max Weber on the Russian Revolutions: Three Essays

Weber, Liberalism and Revolution 527
Lawrence A. Scaff

Weber in the Context of Current Events in Russia 535
Dmitry Shlapentokh

Imperial Legacies and Democratic Prospects: Max Weber's The Russian Revolutions in Historical Perspective 553
Thomas S. Pearson

II

Sociological Perspectives on the Modern Epoch: A Symposium on the Main Trends of the Modern World Series

Propaganda in the Modern World (Robert Jackall's Propaganda) 569
Michael W. Hughey

What Are Social Movements Today? (Stanford M. Lyman's Social Movements: Critiques, Concepts, Case-Studies) 579
Stephen R. Thomas

The Modern City: Ecology, Technology and Text (Philip Kasinitz's Metropolis: Center and Symbol of Our Times) 587
David Brain

The New Middle Classes (Arthur J. Vidich's The New Middle Classes: Life Styles, Status Claims, and Political Orientations) 611
Gerald E. Levy

III

Franco Ferrarotti's The Temptation to Forget: Racism, Anti-Semitism, Neo-Nazism

Some Dilemmas of History and Memory 623
Stanford M. Lyman

IV

What's Left of Ideology?

A Thermidorian Meditation 637
Dmitry Shlapentokh

V

A Reply 649
Mary Lydon

About the Authors 653